LaCrosse Global Fund Services announces appointment of Mark Del Col as global head of sales and marketing

NEW YORK, NY – LaCrosse Global Fund Services, a provider of operations, middle-office and fund administration services to managers of complex hedge funds around the world, announced today Mark Del Col has been named global head of sales and marketing. He will be based in the New York headquarters.

Del Col has more than 23 years of experience in the financial services industry, most recently as a managing director at Swift, a leader in international standards setting for the financial services industry. Prior to joining Swift, he was a partner and managing principal at Capco Consulting where he was responsible for sales and delivery within the private client and personal financial services sector as part of the North American leadership team. In addition, he worked as a vice president of global operating efficiencies and industry initiatives at Deutsche Bank and as a senior trust advisor at PNC Trust Company. He earned his B.S. in finance degree from Villanova University.

“Mark has an impressive track record within the financial services industry and will leverage his business development and management experience to expand LaCrosse’s global sales and product awareness,” said LaCrosse Global Fund Services Co-Chief Executive Officer Christopher Kundro.
