LaCrosse Global Fund Services Completes SAS 70 Type II Examination

New York, NY – LaCrosse Global Fund Services announced today that it has completed its SAS 70 Type II examination. The examination is an internationally-recognized reporting standard that recognizes firms that successfully complete an in-depth, third party review of processes and controls relevant to their customers. A “Big Four” public accounting firm conducted the audit, which was completed in December 2009.

“LaCrosse Global Fund Services clients benefit from our expertise and high standards in areas including technology, services and operations, all of which are essential components of our corporate infrastructure. The results of the Type II SAS 70 examination demonstrate our continued focus on excellence in all important areas,” said Christopher Kundro, co-chief executive officer.
