LaCrosse Global Fund Services selected by W Partners

LONDON – March 1, 2011 – W Partners LLP has selected LaCrosse Global Fund Services to provide daily hedge fund administration and a comprehensive outsourced middle and back office operations solution.

W Partners is a London-based hedge fund founded by Chief Investment Officer and Managing Partner Simon Waxley. In his previous positions, Waxley served a total of eight years at Elliott Associates, initially as a portfolio manager and then as the managing director of the firm's Hong Kong office and Asian business. W Partners is launching the Capital W Fund SPC, a Cayman Fund, which will focus on event-driven special situations primarily in Europe and Asia.

"After benchmarking three different administrators, we found that LaCrosse was best suited to serve our needs. They have a great team of experienced professionals and are able to provide us a flexible package of services tailored to our specific requirements," said W Partners Chief Operating Officer Wafa Tawfeeq. Tawfeeq joined W Partners after five years at TPG-Axon, which she joined pre-launch to help set up and manage its derivative and treasury operations.

"We are pleased to have been selected by W Partners and look forward to working with such an experienced team," said Rob Helszajn, head of European Client Relations and Business Development at LaCrosse. "W Partners has subscribed to our LaCrosseSTP+™ service – a full-service fund administration, middle- and back-office solution geared specifically to managers of highly liquid strategies. LaCrosseSTP+™ clients benefit from the same institutional quality infrastructure, controls and focus on operational risk management as all other LaCrosse clients, irrespective of strategy."
