LaCrosse Global Fund Services announces appointment of Meng Hua Yeo as head of client relationships and business development for Asia

NEW YORK – LaCrosse Global Fund Services, a provider of operations, middle-office and fund administration services to managers of complex hedge funds around the world, announced today that Meng Hua Yeo has been named head of client relationships and business development for Asia. In her new position, she is responsible for leading the sales and client relationship management efforts in the Asia region and will be based in the Singapore office.

Meng Hua has extensive experience in the asset management industry, most recently as Aberdeen Asset Management's regional head, Private Wealth Management, before which she was Vice President, Institutional Services, at ABN AMRO Asset Management and OCBC Asset Management's head of institutional client relationship management. She began her career in the industry as a portfolio manager in the 1990s at Nomura Asset Management where she was responsible for managing an Asia ex-Japan equity fund during which time she gained considerable experience in the financial markets before making the transition to business development and client relations.

"Meng Hua has a strong track record in serving the asset management industry and will harvest her knowledge and experience to enhance LaCrosse's services to its clients. We look forward to working with her as we continue to expand our operations in Asia," said Celia Choh, Head of Asia Operations.
