LaCrosse Global Fund Services selected by Sentosa Capital

Singapore – April 01, 2011 – Sentosa Capital (Pte.) Ltd. (“Sentosa Capital”) has selected LaCrosse Global Fund Services to provide daily hedge fund administration and a comprehensive outsourced middle and back office operations solution.

Sentosa Capital is a Singapore-based hedge fund manager founded primarily by Anton Martin, Brad Levitt and Charlie Wang, all formerly of Standard Chartered Bank (“SCB”). Sentosa Capital’s management team is headed by Brad Levitt, Sentosa Capital’s CEO and the former Global Head Capital Markets at SCB; Charlie Wang, Sentosa Capital’s CIO and the former Global Head of Credit Trading at SCB; and Anton Martin, Sentosa Capital’s Head of Investor Relations and Business Development and the former Global Head of Investor Sales at SCB. Sentosa Capital is launching the Sentosa Asian Credit Fund, a Cayman Islands-based fund that specializes in managing high quality Asian credit denominated in both hard currency (US$/G3) and local currency.

Sentosa Capital has subscribed to the LaCrosseSTP+™ service – a full-service fund administration, middle- and back-office solution geared specifically to managers of liquid strategies. LaCrosseSTP+™ clients benefit from the same institutional quality infrastructure, controls and focus on operational risk management as all other LaCrosse clients, irrespective of strategy.

“After benchmarking many different administrators, we determined that LaCrosse Global Fund Services is best equipped to meet our needs. LaCrosse’s global footprint includes a dedicated local Asia presence that is impressive. In addition, the team demonstrates a keen understanding of our strategy and administrative requirements. All in all, LaCrosse is well-positioned to meet our future operational needs,” said Brad Levitt, CEO of Sentosa Capital

“We are pleased to have been selected by Sentosa Capital, former senior management and founders of Standard Chartered Bank’s Capital Markets group. Having come from Cargill’s proprietary desk spin-off, we are certainly well placed to service this mandate and look forward to working with such an experienced team,” said Celia Choh, LaCrosse Global Fund Services’ managing director for Asia.
